NEW CLUB

Sporting Life

Paddle anyone? The good news for platform tennis enthusiasts is that Glenview Park District just opened the first-of-its-kind public paddle and golf facility on the North Shore. Designed by Mary Cook Associates, the brand-new luxe Glenview Prairie Club facility located near The Glen Town Center strives to be the next “great good place” on the North Shore. With its four state-of-the-art lighted paddle tennis platforms, indoor clubhouse with full bar and food service, two-sided open fireplace, cozy seating area and indoor games, you can make it a date night or take the whole family for this winter sport—one that is sure to beat those winter blues. ### TOP SHELF

Pour It On

Tired of bulky coffee pots and K-cup pods crowding your kitchen countertops? This hot-off-the-shelf TopBrewer coffee maker by Scanomat looks like a sleek faucet, but makes everything from an espresso to a vanilla latte, all customized to your exact specifications with the touch of an iPhone app. Available exclusively through NuHaus in Highland Park, Evanston and Chicago.
